Dear Bruce Vaughan and P.H. Colley

I saw your true story "Harm" just moments ago and wanted to send my regards to Bruce as soon as I finished reading it. My heart is with the two of you right now. I cannot find the appropriate words to describe my feelings for the ordeal both of you have been through. Just words of encouragement and well wishes for many more years of happiness together for both of you. I hope Bruce is fit now and in good spirits. Mr Colley, thank you so much for taking such good care of Mr Vaughan; I have learned valuable lessons from reading your story, thank you. Have a very good day ahead.

Regards
Wong

MISSING JIM EDMONDS

Subj: Dear Pat
Date: Friday, April 19, 2002 1:55:43 PM
From: sailorsm@[redacted]
To: crpi@aol.com

I was thunderstruck by Jim Edmond's death. You will not know it but I met Jim about six years ago. He had seen my picture in your magazine, the one in the cowboy hat. He told me that he thought that I was the handsomest thing. At the time, I was going with [redacted] in Florida and nothing came of it but we have kept in touch. I live on the border in Canada and we had planned to go to the opera together and spend some quality time together. He was such a dear soul and we had planned it for a long time. I then didn't hear for him for awhile which wasn't unusual as he was always busy. Then I saw his picture and heard the tragedy. His poor sister and all, it is devastating. I will mourn his passing as he was always one of the best email friends and he always gave me calendars with his photos of self in all the places he visited. I enjoyed your article about males in the gay world, and the non males who have the worst of female traits that they pervert. It was bang on and made me leave the gay world for many years. Look after yourself and I like the magazine very much. Carl is one of my very good friends and nice to see that he is now photographing. He is a dear friend to you and Bruce and speaks so highly of you. He is also a wonderful man who I may meet this fall or next year as funds permits, do take care, [redacted] SAILOR'S MATE

Subj: Passing of Jim Edmonds
Date: Sunday, April 14, 2002 1:59:00 PM
From: [redacted]
To: Crpi

Dear Pat:

I noticed with much sadness the passing of Jim Edmonds. Have you heard of any Memorial Funds formed in his honor? I would greatly appreciate any information that you have.

I had the great honor of turning pages for at least three of his concerts for the CR Gatherings. To be so close and experience first hand his great musicianship and personal talent is one of the most meaningful musical experiences of my life. You and your staff are to be complimented in giving all of us the opportunity of sharing in his humor and talent

As I read in your publication, many changes have taken place. Change is not easy for us. But it is inevitable. Our choice is what we do with it. It is my hope that you realize how much you have opened doorways for us to grow as persons and develop healthy relationships through CR and its many events. There are not enough Thanks that can be handed out. Here is a big one THANK YOU!!!!!!

GENTLE BEAR

THE GATHERINGS

Hi,

SURE WISH YOU COULD FIND SOMEONE TO RUN THE GATHERINGS. MAYBE LIMIT TO 1000 GUYS AND HELD AT NOT SO UPSCALE HOTELS. I ATTENDED MIAMI, NEW ORLEANS AND ORLANDO – WONDERFUL! I THOUGHT THE PRICES WERE OK – AFTER ALL IT IS A SPECIAL OCCASION. EVEN AT HOME A STEAK HOUSE GETS $16.00 TO $22.50 FOR A MEAL. SO I DIDN'T UNDERSTAND ALL THE FUSS !! (OVER) HOPE ALL IS WELL !!

THANKS –

Joe

EDITOR'S NOTE: ACTUALLY WE HAVE FOUND SOMEONE TO DO THE GATHERINGS. A JOINT VENTURE OF PROFESSIONAL MEETING PLANNERS ARE NOW NEGOTIATING WITH HOTELS IN SOUTH FLORIDA. THE GATHERING WILL BE VERY SIMILAR TO THE ONES WE HAVE DONE IN THE PAST, ONLY BETTER. I HAVE BEEN HIRED TO PROVIDE PROMOTIONAL ASSISTANCE AND WILL BE THE DESIGNATED HOST AS AN EMPLOYEE OF THE JOINT VENTURE. AN ANNOUNCEMENT WILL BE MADE ON OUR WEBSITE IN THE NEAR FUTURE RELATIVE TO HAVING IT OVER MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND, 2003. PHC

A LOVE-FILLED HEART IN HAWAII

April 12,2002

Dear Friends,

Enclosed is my renewal check for another year of your great magazine. I'm into my fourth year and enjoy each issue more than the last. This newest one is the best yet. Your color reproduction is tops and everything about the mag. is too.

I enjoy looking over the past issues as a wonderful form of relaxation and "escape". You ran my photo, a small color print, about a year and a half ago. I got a total of three replies, none of which really answered my needs, but three is better than none.

Being 83 years old and from a place as "remote" as Hawaii, has its drawbacks, as most would figure there was no way they would ever get here to meet me. I fully understand that, but if the right person had answered I would have sent a round trip ticket. I know now I'll never find anyone at this late stage of my life, but it's sure fun fantasizing over some of the photos.

I thank you sincerely for bringing much happiness to this "old geezer"...I wish I had discovered your mag. many years ago. Please know that you are filling a desperate need for many oldies wh o have no other contact with the gay senior world.

All the very best of continued success to you and much ALOHA from Hawaii.

Lomely in Paradise,

HAWAII 8-0

BUSH PILOT'S DILEMMA

Dear Pat,

Please consider the attached check a donation. What you are doing for us "old goy farts" is comendable. I just wish I could send more. One day I will. My lover died a few years back and I am having one hell of a time replacing him. My workload here on my farm is beginng to be more than I can handle by myself. If I don't find someone soon I'm goeng to have to sell. The enclosed purple brochure explains my delima. Got any ideas? BUSH PILOT/MI

PARIS IN THE SPRINGTIME

Subj: Issue 102
Date: Tuesday, April 9, 2002 7:28
From: Crlvr
To: Crpi

Dear Pat and Bruce,

I arrived home from work today with my front door mail slot stuffed with oversized envelopes. Two were from my accountant with my tax returns and backup paperwork. I knew I owed them money. One was from you. I knew it contained goodies for me. Guess which I opene first. The tax returns can wait until tomorrow or later. I have another three days before I have to send the IRS my check.

As usual I devoured CR from stem to stern, from starboard to port, from top to bottom (and o how I do like some of the bottoms). It's one of the best ever, and I think I'm entitled to an opinion since I've collected and read all of your publications since around 1986 or so. I am always saddened when I see the obituaries because it's usually of someone I've met or seen at o of the 10 gatherings I attended. The tributes and stories always bring a tear and reminds me of the loss of my partner who passed away three years ago. However, CR also reminds me of my new love, Marty, who I met at your Gathering in New Orleans a couple of years ago. We aren't going to make the CR cruise this year because we've decided to take an anniversary trip to Paris, France instead. We'll be thinking about all of you while we are there and wishing you a bon voyage.

I've told you many times before, but I want to say again how much you and Bruce have mea to so many of us. You were the pioneer who made it OK to be gay and love older men and rea you were not the only one so inclined. Thousands of us will forever be in your debt for openin up our world.

I personally know some of the 102 models and "Toots" on page 41 is one of my favorites. They don't come much sweeter than him. I don't personally know "Papa OSO" on page 18 b he's too cute for words. Keep 'em coming!

Hugs to both of you.

Forever indebted,
Bob

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF

BILL WORRALL

I left Montreal heading toward Quebec City, when I decided to stop at a comfort station. The first stall was occupied, so I went into the second one. I was no sooner seated than I heard a voice from the next stall.

"Hi, how are you doing?"

Well, I'm not the type to chat with strangers in highway comfort stations, and I really don't know quite what possessed me, but anyway, I answered, a little embarrassed: "Not bad."

And the stranger said, "And, what are you up to?"

Talk about your dumb questions! I was really beginning to think this was too weird! So I said: "Well, just like you, I'm driving east."

Then, I heard the stranger, all upset, say, "Look, I'll call you back. There's some idiot in the next stall answering all the questions I'm asking you."

COULD WE HAVE YOUR ATTENTION?

Thanks. How do you like it so far? Of course, this changes everything. On the downside, a lot of guys without computers can no longer read the magazine many of them grew to love. We deeply regret that, but we just didn't garner the level of readership (much less advertising income) to pay for a classy, glossy color magazine. When it comes down to paying for postage and printing costs or paying for health insurance and food, there is no contest.

For those of you who know CR subscribers without computers who feel abandoned, tell them to check out the new printed magazine advertised in this publication: 100% BEEF. It's a mature men's magazine, and the guys who publish and edit it are good people. We recommend it 100%.

So how will things change, other than the format? Well, our contact network will now be located on our website and updated weekly. Our order forms will be downloadable from our website as well. All new fiction and articles will appear in the LIBRARY section of our website. Many of you have never clicked on that and just might be surprised at the sheer volume of fiction and nonfiction we have there. The magazine itself will be dedicated to

EYE CANDY!

Along with our new version of REPARTEE and some commercial ads.

Were you one of those guys who got frustrated because we never published your photograph in color? Send your photograph again, along with a release downloaded from our website. This time we WILL do it in color. Got some photos too hot for CR? Send them to us. We'll use them in one of our upcoming CR CLASSICS or CRONUS issues. Push the envelope. We don't care. Just keep this in mind: WE CANNOT DOWNLOAD AN IMAGE BY E-MAIL UNLESS THE SENDER'S FULL NAME, ADDRESS AND TELEPHONE NUMBER ARE CLEARLY INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF THE E-MAIL MESSAGE. WE DO NOT DOWNLOAD ANYTHING FROM PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT FULLY IDENTIFIED.

Let us know what you think about the new format. We want to hear from you!

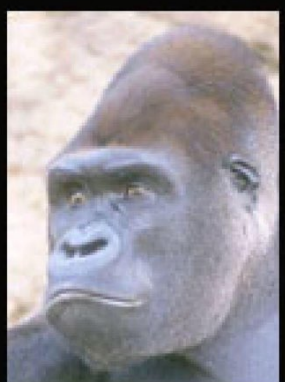
LAST MINUTE ANNOUNCEMENTS, JOKES, SIGHT GAGS, AND BULLSHIT

We'd like to welcome new photographer, STEVE CANNON. He's 56 and lives in Palm Springs. A semi-retired professional photographer, he loves what he does and is looking for models to shoot in the Palm Springs area.

If you're wondering how to go about writing to the models featured in this issue, go to our website and click on CONTACT NETWORK. You write to models the same way you write to advertisers who use a codeword. Follow the same procedure, and we'll forward your fan mail to any model, photographer or writer you choose.

Your hard-working editor hasn't got a fucking thing to say in this issue . . . . Okay, maye just one thing: Are there any hot, rugged fireplugs out there who like bent-dicked Big Men with assassinated characters?



For those of you who don't get the juxtaposition of animals in some of our images, rest assured that it is only a creative device and page filler. No animals were harmed in the making of this magazine. Any animal's appearance in CR should not be construed as any indication of said animal's sexual orientation. So happens that the silverback on the right is heterosexual.
